

White Glove Delivery

Home Delivery To Your Customer's Room Of Choice!

Arrow and Kangaroo Cabinets has launched White Glove Delivery - a delivery service to transport your customer's fully-assembled sewing furniture to the room of their choice.

Sewing furniture can be extremely heavy and difficult to transport. Part of your customer base may prevent purchasing sewing cabinets or specialty crafting furniture, solely due to transportation and assembly concerns. White Glove Delivery allows your customers the freedom to move forward with the cabinet of their dreams, and creates sales your business may have otherwise lost.

What's Included In White Glove Delivery?

White Glove Delivery includes a dedicated two-person delivery team to transport sewing furniture to the room of your customer's choice - carefully placing furniture in your customer's desired location (including 2nd floor delivery). After set up, your customer's delivery team will remove all trash and debris, leaving their sewing room tidy, organized and ready for sewing!
